FOR STATE TREASURER,
S. G. SHARP, OF LEXINGTON.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
ALVIS B. TICHENOR.
FOR CORONER OF OHIO COUNTY,
J. H. KLEIN.
FOR SENATOR FROM EIGHTH DISTRICT,
P. HOCKER.

HON. W. C. P. BRUCKNIRIDGE spoke at Greenville yesterday.

Some men can speak almost anything with their conversation except a field of corn.

A HARTFORD young man says his girl has lied on her, he's proud of her. So sweet, you know.

HOCKER for Stevens, Tichenor for Representative and Klein for Coroner is as it should and will be.

It is a difficult matter these days to distinguish between a stylish young man's collar and his cuffs.

The Democrats of the 8th Senatorial District should leave no stone unturned from now until sundown on the 5th of August.

JAMES J. CONGERSON, who was selected after three years' imprisonment for swindling Judge Richard Reid, was granted a pardon by Gov. Buckner last Monday.

WILL Mr. Sils Stevens tell the people of Ohio county why he failed to vote for Ed Farley for Treasurer in 1888, when Farley was the Republicans' name of the year? The result of the election was a tie, and he voted for the Republican. Kentucky Republicans met at Lexington last Wednesday and nominated another candidate for State Treasurer. This time it is Hon. David G. Colson, of Bell county.

Why is it that Mr. Martin will not meet Mr. Hocker on the stump throughout the 8th Senatorial District to discuss the issues of the day? The answer is plain—he is afraid of the result.

BARKER FIELD DODGELASS has been appointed Minister to Hayti. He will be accompanied by his white wife, which will be a splendid specimen of the social relations existing in America.

As you so help in a rural town, the other day thought to draw some beautiful new-fashioned ivory buttons, but they turned out to be ice-cream sundaes to be used at church festivals.

The editor of the Cullowhee Courier, which was a half-column, he could go "deafening" Jan Green river to escape the heat, and mingle his voice with the "deaf-deaf" of the mounted warblers.

Speaking of the invention of new words by newspaper men, we have a candidate for public favor: "Ob-squitate"—to abscond, to run away. We offer it to Republican orators as a diversion in their compliments to Tate.

FELIX A. BARRETT, editor of the Cynthiaburg Leader, was arrested by a week, charged with stealing money from a clothing house in that place. He was placed under guard, but managed to escape. The Leader is a Republican paper.

Tate, Kentucky editor, Teacher, Associate, sat at Lexington on Wednesday last week, and was in session three days. There was large attendance and the proceedings were well carried out. The address were eloquent and well delivered, and the meeting was a satisfactory one in every respect.

MICHIGAN has it making it $10 for a man to get drunk once a week, twice, $100 and six months imprisonment. It makes no provision for the man who gets drunk all the time, nor yet draws a line distinguishing the man from that who is "just feeling his oats."

The much talked about and real fight between John L. Sullivan, the champion of the world and Jake Kilian, the would-be champion, took place at Rockbridge, Miss., on June 10. It took John L. two hours and eighteen minutes, and seventy-five rounds to do it up, but he did it all the same.

The Kentucky press is unanimous in its verdict on the defeat of our favorite racer, Proctor Knott. Come, gentlemen, no levity. Our pretty women, good licker and fast horses, whether they get there or not—must be held in sacred reverence. We wouldn't mind getting off a gag sentence, but we have Spokane enough.

EVERY man of every party should vote at the next election for calling a convention to frame a new Constitution for Kentucky. That unsatisfactory document, many years ago, under different circumstances than the present, has many clauses in it that are most valuable. We need something more suited to the progress of civilization.

WANAMAKER says his reasons for post-office removals are "drunkenness and inefficiency." Do you represent a number of ex-OHIO county postmasters in fact, in your opinion, any adjoining county, was it not that, dismally lying? Come, everybody. Democrats should give and ask no quarter. Republicans should just say they want the office, and take them. No EXCUSES UP HERE.

WE MUST HAVE IT.—A short time ago, the management of the closest branch of the Louisville, Paducah and Western railroad, which has been in existence for the past 20 years, was sold to the interests of the Southern Railway. The manager of the project was Mr. H. C. Hopper. According to the report, the project was interesting to him, but not to his partners. In his words, "I am not losing my position on sympathy as our fellow men here feel it. Kentucky has a way of getting along without me." He is a Democrat in this regard, but is not losing his position on sympathy of all kinds of interests. He is making a good record, and every class of persons, especially of all kinds of interests, are upward, while the tendency of force is downward.
